North Georgia Technical College Procedure

V. R.: STUDENT GRIEVANCES

It is the practice of North Georgia Technical College to maintain a grievance process available to all students that provides an open and meaningful forum for their grievances, the resolution of these grievances, and is subject to clear guidelines. This procedure does not address grievances related to the unlawful harassment, discrimination and/or retaliation for reporting harassment/discrimination against students. Those complaints are handled by the Unlawful Harassment and Discrimination of Students Procedure.

DEFINITIONS

Grievable issues: Issues arising from the application of a policy/procedure to the student’s specific case is always grievable. Specifically grievable are issues related to student advisement, improper disclosure of grades, unfair testing procedures and poor treatment of students; this is a representative list and is not meant to be exhaustive.

Non-grievable issues: Issues which have a separate process for resolution (i.e. disciplinary sanctions, FERPA, financial aid, academic grades, discrimination, harassment etc.) are not grievable and a student must take advantage of the process in place.

Business days: Weekdays that the college administrative offices are open.

Retaliation: Unfavorable action taken, condition created, or other action taken by a student/employee for the purpose of intimidation directed toward a student because the student initiated a grievance or participated in an investigation of a grievance.

Grievant: The student who is making the complaint.

PROCEDURE

For all timelines established herein, if a student will need additional time, an extension may be granted at the Vice President for Student Affairs’ discretion.

A. Informal Grievance Procedure: Students with grievable issues should resolve those issues, if possible, on an informal basis without the filing of a formal grievance.
   1. A student has 10 business days from the date of the incident being grieved to resolve the matter informally by approaching their instructor, department chair or any other staff or faculty member directly involved in the grieved incident.

2. If this process does not result in a resolution of the grievable issue, the student may proceed to the formal grievance procedure below.

B. Formal Grievance Procedure: If a student cannot resolve their grievance informally, he or she may use this formal grievance procedure.

1. Within 15 business days of the incident being grieved, the student must file a formal grievance in the office of the Vice President for Student Affairs (VPSA) or the President’s designee with the following information:
   a) Name,
   b) Date,
   c) Brief description of incident being grieved,
   d) Remedy requested
   e) Signed, and
   f) Informal remedy attempted by student and outcome

2. If the grievance is against the VPSA, the student shall file the grievance with the President’s office.

3. The VPSA, or the President’s designee, will investigate the matter and supply a written response to the student within 15 business days.

4. If the grieved incident involves possible unlawful harassment, discrimination or retaliation for reporting unlawful harassment/discrimination, the investigation will be handled pursuant to the Procedure: Unlawful Harassment and Discrimination of Students.

5. If the grieved incident is closely related to an incident being processed through the harassment/discrimination or disciplinary procedures, the proceedings under the Unlawful Harassment and Discrimination of Student’s procedure will take precedence, then the disciplinary procedure and then the student’s grievance will be addressed. The grievance will not be processed until after the other procedures have run their course.

6. The VPSA, or the President’s designee, shall be granted an additional 15 business days to investigate the grievance upon notice to the grieving student.

C. Appeal: The student may appeal the decision from the VPSA or the President’s designee to the President. Only the student has the right to appeal.

1. A student shall file a written appeal to the President within 5 business days of receiving the response of the investigation of the formal grievance.

2. The appeal will be decided based entirely on documents provided by the student and the administration; therefore, the student must ensure that he or she has provided all relevant documents with his or her appeal.

3. At the sole discretion of the President, grievance appeals at the institution may be held in one of the following two ways:
a) The President may review the information provided by the student and administration and make the final decision; or
b) The President may appoint a cross-functional committee to make the final decision.
c) The decision of either the President or the cross-functional committee shall be made within 10 business days of receipt of the appeal.

4. Whichever process is chosen by the President, the decision of the grievance appeal is final.

D. Retaliation against a student for filing a grievance is strictly prohibited.
E. All student complaints are recorded in the student complaint log, which is maintained by the office of the Vice President for Student Affairs. The complaint log is reviewed annually by the Vice President in order to identify trends and address recurring problems.

RECORD RETENTION:

Documents relating to formal grievances including investigations, dispositions and the grievance itself shall be held for 5 years after the graduation of the student or the date of the student’s last attendance.

The Vice President for Student Affairs is responsible for the administration of this procedure.
