Office of Financial Aid

Conflicting Tax Information: 399 Form

You completed both 2016-2017 and 2017-2018 FAFSA using 2015 tax and income information. The information provided for both years does not match. This is considered conflicting information by the Department of Education and must be resolved before any financial aid can be placed on your account.

Failure to resolve conflicting information can delay your 2017-2018 financial aid and could result in loss of financial aid funds for the 2016-2017 award year. If any misreported income information needs to be added to your 2016-17 FAFSA, any federal aid that the student was not eligible to receive must be paid back to North Georgia Technical College before receiving financial during the 2017-18 award year.
