

Social Work

Diploma or Associate Degree available

NGTC's Social Work Assistant degree program is designed to prepare individuals to obtain entry-level employment in public and private social service agencies. The social worker assistant is equipped with the skills, knowledge, values, and sensitivity needed to effectively serve human needs in a variety of community settings. Students have the option to select courses that will prepare them to provide client services, as well as support for families in a variety of fields, such as psychology, rehabilitation, and social work.

Online program available on all three campuses

Graduates of the Social Work Assistant AAS degree program may assist the social worker in developing, organizing, and conducting programs to resolve problems relevant to human relations, substance abuse, adult day care, and rehabilitation. They may also assist clients in identifying social and community services available to them. This can be accomplished in a variety of settings including:

- Nonprofit organizations
- For-profit social service agencies
- State and local governments
