

Funeral Services

Associate Degree available

Why choose Funeral Service Education? Death is an inevitable part of life, and helping others navigate loss with dignity and compassion is both a calling and a privilege. If you are driven, compassionate, service-oriented and find fulfillment in helping others through times of grief, the Funeral Service Education program at North Georgia Technical College (NGTC) may be the perfect fit for you. Through a blend of classroom instruction, hands-on training, and real-world experience, the program focuses on preparing students for meaningful careers as respected professionals within the human services field.

 Available on the Clarkesville campus

Graduates of the Funeral Service Education program are trained to serve their communities with compassion, competence, and integrity, fostering strong relationships with bereaved families while adhering to all federal, state, and local regulations.

CAUTION: This program is pursuing accreditation but is NOT currently accredited by the American Board of Funeral Service Education (ABFSE). Until accreditation is achieved, graduates of the program are NOT eligible to take any licensing examination that requires graduation from an ABFSE-accredited program, including the National Board Examination.
